Meeting on Development Economics

May 7-8, 2024

CALL FOR PAPERS

We are pleased to announce a call for papers for the first Meeting on Development Economics, taking place on May 7th and 8th, 2024. This workshop aims to provide a platform for researchers to share their work, discuss ongoing research, and foster collaborations in the field of development economics.

We invite submissions related to all aspects of development economics, including but not limited to education, environment, gender, health, migration, poverty, and inequality.

Keynote speaker: Cynthia Kinnan, Tufts University.

Submission guidelines:

- Complete manuscripts (or extended abstracts) must be submitted here.
- Submission deadline: February 29th, 2024
- Authors of accepted manuscripts will be notified by mid-March 2023.
- Accommodation will be covered.
- Limited travel funding is available: Funding priority will be given to junior faculty, graduate students, and researchers from low- and middle-income countries. Please indicate your funding needs in your submission.

We aim to attract a diverse set of presenters in terms of career stage, gender, and country of origin and particularly welcome submissions from researchers based in low- and middle-income countries.
